Objective

The presence of a vibrant Development Sector is a boon to the nation. In any of its forms, organisations work for a social cause, either as non-profit CSOs or as a social business enterprise, to make the world a better place to live in.

The Seminar will aim to deliver knowledge on the working of CSOs, including the compliances and required capacities at the organizational levels apart from discussing the opportunities available in the development sector. The significance of the UN Sustainable Development Goals and the current scenario in CSR will also be highlighted. A few good practices amongst CSOs will be presented.

Key Focus Areas

- Role of CSOs and Social Entrepreneurs, compliances and opportunities.
- Importance of UN SDGs in the Development Sector
- Current CSR Scenario and an insight into the National CSR Portal (www.csr.gov.in).
- Exposure to good practices amongst Civil Society Organisations

For Whom

Civil Society Organisations (CSOs), Social and Corporate Foundations, Social Entrepreneurs and Academia and individual professional interested in Development Sector Organizations.
